Notice Regarding Finalization of Victory in Patent Infringement Lawsuit

Kyoto, Japan, 3 March 2021 – CCS Inc. (CCS; Headquarters: Kyoto, Japan; President - Hiroyuki Onishi), a manufacturer of LED lighting for image processing inspection, has filed a patent infringement lawsuit against Leimac Ltd. (Leimac; Former Company Name: IMAC Co., Ltd., Headquarters: Moriyama City, Shiga Prefecture, Representative Director, Mamoru Tanaka) for infringement of patent rights (patent No. 4366431) on its LED line lights. The Supreme Court of Japan has dismissed Leimac's appeal against the judgement of the Intellectual Property High Court, thus confirming CCS's victory in the lawsuit.

CCS will continue to take resolute action for infringement of intellectual property rights where appropriate and necessary as a part of its ongoing efforts to contribute to the development of the imaging processing inspection industry.
